

Conceiving Family

Bio

Amy Bohigian – Producer/Director

Amy Bohigian's is a producer/director of films including the award-winning documentary Love It and Leave It, funded by National Film Board of Canada, Conceiving Family, for release spring 2011, and the short Beyond the Chair. She's worked with Karin Slater, internationally recognized filmmaker, on 50 years of Love?, created Roundtable, a video installation, as an Artist-in-Residence at Oxygen Art Centre and served as the Extras Casting Director for The Tall Man, set in her backyard of interior British Columbia, Canada. She was recently awarded the Astral Media Scholarship for emerging and mid-career directors to participate in the Hot Docs Industry Festival in May 2011.

Bohigian founded Watershed Productions in 2007 and has since worked on array of digital video projects serving a wide variety of sectors such as educational institutions, non-profits, and government agencies for clients including Canadian Broadcast Corporation, Kootenay Lake School District, City of Nelson, Columbia Basin Trust, Interior Health of British Columbia, Government of Canada's Social Development Partnerships Program and Selkirk College.

She earned her Master's Degree in Education from Harvard University in 1999 and holds her Advanced Degree from the Independent Digital Film Program at Selkirk College where she graduated with honours. She is raising twin three year olds, Franny and Theo, with her partner in Nelson BC.